Nixon Visits South, then Flies to Ohio

Candidate Happy Over Reception In Pennsylvania

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon dips into the South today afloat on a cloud of enthusiasm steamed up by the presidential campaign's biggest turnout in Philadelphia Wednesday night.

The Republican presidential nominee displayed new confidence in the outcome of his contest with his Democratic opponent, Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts, as he winged into the doubtful border state of Tennessee.

Here he had a date at Memorial Square before taking off for Cleveland, Ohio. There Kennedy's street crowds of 250,000 had been tops until Nixon drew somewhere around a police-estimated 500,000 in Philadelphia which used to be Republican but has been Democratic in recent years.

A crowd which left about 3,000 empty seats in Philadelphia's 14,000-seat Convention Hall—scene of many national conventions—made up in stamping enthusiasm what it lacked in numbers.

There is no denying, however, that Nixon had scored a 10-strike in Pennsylvania, with its 32 electoral votes.

The Pennsylvania welcome was doubly satisfactory to the vice president after a day in New York that found some of those who listened to his standard campaign speech not so responsive as they have been elsewhere.

Nixon told New York listeners that he talks the same way about civil rights in the North and South. But he said his opponent's "talk out of both corners of their mouths" on the issue.

This was true, he said, because Kennedy and his running mate, Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, do not see eye-to-eye on civil rights.

Nixon said in his Philadelphia speech that the Republicans had "initiated in 1957 the first civil rights law enacted in 80 years." He did not mention that Northern Democrats had provided the margin of congressional votes for enactment of this statute. Johnson has conceded that no law would have been passed but for his efforts as Senate majority leader.

"I am proud to say that I have a running mate who will stand with me instead of against me on this issue," Nixon said.

The vice president, however, eliminated from his Philadelphia speech a quotation attributed to Johnson about civil rights.

The quotation was included in prepared excerpts which Nixon's press aides had released earlier in New York. It quoted Johnson as having said: "I am not now and never have been an advocate of civil rights. I don't think I ever will be."

Nixon's press secretary, Herbert G. Klein, said the source of the quote was a column written by Drew Pearson. He said the column was published in March, 1960, and that it "referred to an incident which Pearson said took place during the 1956 Democratic National Convention."

The excerpts were given newspapermen in New York and many of them wrote their morning paper stories on the basis they would be delivered in Philadelphia. Just after the excerpts were handed out Klein was asked where and when Johnson was alleged to have made the statement. Klein investigated and released the elimination statement in Philadelphia.

Today Klein told newsmen that the vice president had withdrawn the statement attributed to Johnson.

"As far as I am aware," Klein said, "the accuracy of the quotation has never been publicly questioned."

The press secretary went on to quote Pearson as attributing these additional words to Johnson: "However, I am a reasonable man. I hope this convention will write a plank that is acceptable to the North and that the South can live with it."

U.S. Victory in Assembly Leaves Neutralists Bitter

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Dismayed U.S. diplomats today took stock of the damage from a bruising fight in the U.N. General Assembly and pushed to heal rifts with angered neutrals.

The United States finally won early this morning—through a parliamentary maneuver—its battle against the neutrals' move for an Assembly resolution urging a meeting between President El-senhower and Soviet Premier Khrushchev.

But the long night contest was nip and tuck, compared with lopsided U. S. majorities in other days, and it made hopping mad such neutralist chiefs as India's Prime Minister Nehru whose influence the United States wants on its side in the expanding world organization.

The nine-vote Communist bloc could have swung the margin at the neutrals, but Khrushchev doesn't want to meet Eisenhower either. So instead the Reds abetted, while Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko watched in noticeable pleasure as the United States fought the neutrals.

American officials, who had maneuvered vigorously all week to avoid Eisenhower's being put in the embarrassing position of saying "no" to a U.N. mandate, were surprised and displeased with the results of the showdown.

Among the African nations, whose 24 members are the largest group in the U.N., only one—right-wing South Africa—voted on the U.S. side on the key vote.

In the Asian group of 21, only seven voted with the United States.

Even among the 20 Latin American neighbors the support was less than solid. Only 13 voted with the United States.

U.S. strategists hoped to repair the damage by stepping up backstage efforts to woo the neutrals and persuade them U.S. policy is not against theirs.

One initial move supporting this was Eisenhower's White House date today with Indonesian President Sukarno. Other contacts were planned by Secretary of State Christian A. Herter and other top U. S. delegates at the U. N.

Six Arrested At Bucyrus GE

Workers, Pickets In Strike Scuffle

BUCYRUS, Ohio (AP) — Six people face charges ranging from malicious destruction of property to assault and battery following a disturbance at the struck General Electric Co. plant here.

Four pickets, all from Columbus, and a man and wife who tried to pass through a picket line into the plant were arrested Wednesday.

The four pickets were charged in connection with a scuffle during which three automobiles were damaged. Three of them—James H. Gearhart, 32, Ira A. McCoy Jr., 26 and Fred Moore, 26 — were charged with assault and battery and released on bond.

The other two persons were charged with assault. They are Shetron J. Topper and his wife, Margaret, of Bucyrus. The charges were filed by another picket—Richard K. Taylor of Warren— who said Topper brandished a .22-caliber revolver as the latter tried to drive his wife to work. Taylor also said the woman hit him.

The disturbance brought a charge from a GE official in Cleveland that the International Union of Electrical Workers was using "imported strangers" as pickets around the Bucyrus plant.

H. L. Weiss, general manager of the GE lamp division, in a telegram to David J. Fitzmaurice, president of IUE Local 707 and IUE District 7 in Cleveland, charged that "vicious violence and vandalism" was being inflicted at Bucyrus by pickets imported from Westinghouse plants in Mansfield, Warren and Columbus.

"This is not action by General Electric employees," Weiss continued, "since the aggressors neither work nor live in Bucyrus. Many employees represented by your union are afraid to go home under threats from these imported strangers. Several of the law violators have been arrested. However, the limited facilities of the Bucyrus police are not capable of coping with such extreme and continuing violence."

Police said pickets kicked in doors of two automobiles and broke a window in the third as drivers attempted to report for work.

Union leaders, company officials and Bucyrus mayor Rollen Koons reportedly reached an agreement Tuesday limiting pickets to six at each gate. Mayor Koons said the union broke the agreement. The union said the agreement was broken because deputies were added to the police force guarding the area.

Kennedy Again Campaigning For Ohio Votes

Speaks Three Times Today in Republican Cincinnati Area

CINCINNATI (AP)—U.S. Sen. John F. Kennedy, Democratic presidential nominee, invaded this stronghold of Republican conservatism and home of the late Sen. Robert A. Taft today for rest and a round of three speaking engagements in the greater Cincinnati area.

He arrived late Wednesday night by air from Louisville, Ky., where a speech before a $50-a-plate dinner crowd climaxed a day of hustings through Indiana. Lateness of the hour and inclement weather kept greeters at the airport to only a few hundred; that, and a change of plans which until mid-Wednesday contemplated Senator Kennedy's arrival today, rather than last night.

That switch made it necessary for local party leaders to call off plans for a motorcade leading from Greater Cincinnati airport, located 14 miles southwest of the city, in Kentucky.

Under revamped plans, the Democratic nominee, joined by Ohio Governor Michael DiSalle and Ohio Democratic Chairman William Coleman, will cross the Ohio River for a 4:30 p.m. appearance on the courthouse lawn in Covington, then hurry back to Cincinnati for another open-air speech on Cincinnati's downtown Government Square. That event is billed as the first downtown outdoor political rally held here in 25 years. Police are expecting a crowd of from 25,000 to 40,000 to jam the area—at about the time thousands of office workers head homeward.

After the Government Square rally, Senator Kennedy will address a $100 a plate Democratic party dinner in a nearby hotel, and depart almost immediately for Washington, D. C.

The homestead signs, almost a trademark of any Kennedy rally, show the spirit of the thing.

One had a picture of a can of auto wax, with this legend: "For a bright job, too, vote for Kennedy."

And another showed a baby yawning and had this caption: "Waking up to Jack."

All in all, a lively affair, as anyone who had to fight his way through the mob can testify.

Kennedy continued his direct attacks on Nixon in both Louisville and in his earlier speeches in Indiana.

In almost every speech he contends that his opponent is a direct political descendant of McKinley, Harding, Coolidge, Landon and Dewey.

And Wednesday, in Evansville, he attacked a favorite Republican theme, that only Nixon has the stature to stand up to Russia's Nikita Khrushchev.

"I am not impressed by those who say they can stand up to Khrushchev," Kennedy said, "when Mr. Castro has successfully defied them from 90 miles away."

It got one of the biggest cheers.

PONTIAC, Mich. (AP) — William Bailey, 38, a former policeman went to the drugstore to get some cough medicine Wednesday night.

When he left the store a man stuck a gun in his back, took $1.00 from him and made him remove his clothes.

Bailey was left standing in his underwear.

Explosion Slated Here Tomorrow

Police Chief Robert Temple today asked local residents not to be alarmed if they hear an explosion tomorrow.

Temple said about 22 sticks of dynamite will be exploded in a field west of the city. He said the explosives were found near a trailer court here Sunday. The sticks have not been claimed.

The dynamite will be exploded by a U. S. Army Ordnance team from Ft. Hayes, Columbus.

Tiny Force Invades Cuba, Eludes Castro

Government Claims Commander Killed, Two Men Captured

HAVANA (AP)—A platoon-sized invasion force from the United States has landed in east Cuba and headed into the mountains after suffering three casualties in a brush with militiamen, the Armed Forces Ministry announced today.

A ministry communique said the landing was made by 27 men, including three Americans, "at dawn yesterday" on a bay midway between the towns of Baracoa and Moa, the site of a nationalized American mining company.

The area is in Oriente Province, the revolutionary stamping grounds of Prime Minister Fidel Castro.

The communique was undated, and it was not specified whether the reported landing was Tuesday or Wednesday. The battle apparently occurred a few hours after the force touched shore.

The commander of the invasion force was killed and two of the men—one wounded—were captured, the ministry said.

The commander was identified as Armentino Fera, a follower of Cuban ex-Sen. Rolando Masferrer. Masferrer, a wealthy backer of the deposed President Fulgencio Batista, is a refugee in the United States.

"The remainder of the group cannot escape the revolutionary army and loyal militiamen," the communique said. "Our government is fully aware of this open activity by which imperialism is attempting to promote counter-revolutionary activity and acts of terrorism."

For months Castro has been predicting an invasion. This incident, as outlined by the Armed Forces Ministry, appears to be the first confirmation that opposition forces are ready to move men into Cuba to assist the insurgents already fighting in the Escambray Mountains in the center of the island.

Rumors that Masferrer's supporters planned a landing have circulated here for weeks. One version said 50 well-armed men had succeeded in landing in central Cuba and joined the other insurgents—estimated up to 1,000 men—in the mountains.

The communique named two prisoners. It said these are Enrique Torres Perez, who was wounded, and Arturo Alvarez, described as a Batista ex-soldier sought for the assassination of three persons during Castro's war against Batista.

"Circles which direct policies of the United States government" were blamed for the invasion. The communique said that "Cuba's revolutionary government is gathering evidence of their activities."

The survivors of the band are apparently seeking to reach the higher mountains of eastern Cuba before Castro forces are concentrated to cut them off.

The two dozen men who eluded the militiamen were reported to have taken 50 Cuban farmers as hostages and reached an area called Nuevo Laredo with Castro forces in pursuit.

Reports circulated in Santiago, the provincial capital about 90 miles southwest of the landing area, that the invasion and subsequent battle occurred "some days ago."

Bicycle Taken

Stephen Spicer, 133 E. High St., told city police yesterday that a 26-inch English type bicycle was taken from a parking place at the local library. He said the bike is black trimmed in white.

The Giant African Snail is six to nine inches long and has 80,000 sharp teeth with which it chews up flowers and vegetation and may even rasp off pieces of buildings. However, it is harmless to man.

More Traffic in Space

During the next two months the United States plans to take some major steps forward in space exploration and satellite science. No doubt some will succeed and some will flop. A rundown of the plans goes something like this:

Man-in-space — A major test of the Mercury space capsule is about due. The first step would send the capsule into space and back, without orbiting. No animal or human will be aboard the first time, but will be later.

Discoverers XV and XVI — these are re-entry experiments. The Discoverer capsule, only a part of the whole Discoverer satellite, is too small for a man. The Discoverer XV will carry instruments; Discoverer XVI will contain a monkey.

Midas — This is the Defense Department's experimental spy satellite. It has infra-red detectors to sight the heat from the blastoff of missiles. One and possibly two Midas attempts will be made before November.

Moon orbits — The National Space and Aeronautics Administration has confirmed that a TV satellite and space station to orbit around the moon will be launched some time this year, possibly before Nov. 1.

Courier — an "active" communications satellite with electronic devices to relay voice and teletype messages is scheduled soon, probably in October.

Thus, the traffic in space — where 13 satellites still orbit the earth and three the sun — will become heavier this fall.

Enough of Collection Taking

NEW YORK (AP)—One of the great ways to kill company time in the modern business office is to take up a collection for somebody.

In the old days you took up a collection for someone only when he died or retired.

Today any excuse will do. You take up a collection for a fellow if his sister-in-law develops a head cold or his son gets bad marks in high school algebra.

"Did you hear about poor old Charlie's trouble?" someone asks. And before you can find out what's ailing Charlie, three eager beavers are already going around the office to raise a fund for him.

If you have ever taken up a collection yourself, the following types will surely be familiar:

1. The selfish realist—"I could drop dead in my swivel chair and nobody would even bother to mail me a penitence," he grumbles. "When are you going to take up a collection for me? That's what I'm interested in."

2. The fatalist—"Don't bother telling me what the collection is for," he says. "Just tell me how much you want from me."

3. The artful postponer—He has a reputation for being generous, but the truth is he hasn't actually contributed a nickel to an office collection in the last 15 years. His stock line: "Gee, I sure want to be in on this one, but I don't have any change with me. Be sure and look me up tomorrow. Now don't forget."

4. The helpful soul—He makes no move toward his wallet, but has a lot of sound and sage advice on how you could do a better job of taking up the collection. "You'll get more if you wait until after lunch before hitting everybody up," he says. "People give more on a full stomach."

5. The topper—"You think old Charlie's got troubles?" he demands. "Let me tell you what real troubles are." If you spend 45 minutes listening to all the woes of his life, he will then grudgingly contribute a dime to your collection.

6. The tycoon—"I'll be glad to contribute $5—that is, if you honor or credit cards," he says. "I haven't touched cash in years."

7. The big-talking tightwad—"I'd like to oblige you but I can't," he says. "I am against group philanthropy. With me it's strictly a matter of principle."

8. The double dealer—"Lend me two bucks and I'll be glad to contribute one," he offers. You give him the two bucks and you never see either of them again. This guy actually makes a profit on every office collection — with your money.

9. The boss—it is awfully easy to identify him. If you're collecting quarter contributions, he's the guy who always hands you a $20 bill.

10. The rival—If you hand him a sheet of paper explaining why you are taking up a collection for good old Charlie, he whips a sheet of paper out of his pocket explaining why he is taking up a collection for good old Joe, who has even worse troubles.

There's Lust for Leadership

Many persons these days talk about leadership, about the need for broader, more intensified leadership. It is difficult quite to understand what they mean because actually the history of the 19th and 20th Centuries has been a revolt against leadership, an effort on the part of the individual to think things out for himself and to act upon his own judgment and to take the consequences.

That is why during these centuries there have been so many changes and many of them have been for the better. When great historic changes take place, many institutions of social value temporarily seem to collapse. The disturbances caused by such changes are always more trying to contemporaries than they are significant in history.

During this century, when material security seems so urgent, sub movements as Fascism, Nazism, Communism, Socialism, and many others have developed to achieve total dependence of the individual upon the State.

The conclave of leadership which appears in the General Assembly of the United Nations is not too impressive. These are not men of broad culture or of noble aspect; most of them are practical politicians men who fought their way up through revolutionary forces or through the apparatus of party organization.

Most of the men at this meeting who stand out as leaders and who control the lives of people and the destinies of nations are startlingly not strong men, not handsome men, not powerful personalities. There is, for instance, not an orator in the crowd.

Khrushchev, Nasser, Castro, Eisenhower are not great speakers either in voice, in gesture or in nobility of thought and expression. Nasser's monotony was shocking in view of his power to sway men.

Yet these men are leaders and men follow them. Why? What is the attraction? The answer seems to be that in an age of action, men of action are admired. These men are like swift automobiles in a race to go faster and faster, harder and harder. It is not high thought that is wanted but action, action for action's sake. Note that Stalin avoided leaving Moscow; Khrushchev chases about the Earth.

He keeps on moving constantly. He is noisy, quarrelsome, an egomaniac, but he moves about. He is a man of action, of action for the sake of action.

The first debate between Vice President Nixon and Senator Kennedy did nothing to advance these men from the standpoint of leadership. Here were presented, on television, two youngish, tired-looking men who were exceeding polite to each other, who seemed to agree with each other about nearly everything but who expected to reach their goals by different means. The spectacle was nonsensical.

These men represent two vastly divergent views of society: one, Nixon, believes in capitalism which he calls "private enterprise," a synthetic term that hardly represents the mechanism; the other, Kennedy, is a Fabian Socialist who believes that it is the duty and responsibility of government to operate the economic mechanism, Kennedy eschews Communism which provides the same means, but he is a Fabian Socialist.

When Vice President Nixon politely reiterated that the goals of both were identical but the means different, what he said was most a statement one can only infer that both are socialists but at a different pace. What difference does the pace make if the end is state monopoly of all life?

Which of these two men is the leader, the slower or the faster? The absurdity of the debate appeared in the ridiculous questioning by radio commentators who were either badly coached or insipidly naïve. Each candidate was asked to state why he thought that he was worthy of the Presidency. And the marvel of it is that each one answered such a question.

A leader of men never states his qualifications; they are inherent in his personality. These two candidates sounded like very young men applying for their first jobs and telling why they think they should be hired. One said, "I am experienced," the other said, "I am just as experienced as he is."

It sounded awful from men who presume to leadership of other men. But then this blandness, the unexpected bowing seems characteristic of all these leaders, except Khrushchev who bellows and brawls and often wins his points.

Whoever advised Nixon to become as mild as the complacent Tom Dewey did the man no service.

Views on Television - Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Television certainly gave you a tenuous, relaxed evening of viewing Wednesday night with both Perry Como and Bing Crosby brightening up the tube.

Crosby's first ABC special of the season was much like his pleasant, easy shows of last year. He and his guest stars, Rosemary Clooney, Johnny Mercer and his three youngest sons did a lot of singing. There was some fine dancing by Carol Lawrence, a minimum of dialogue, and—highlight of the show — a trick sequence with three Bing Crosby's appearing simultaneously on the screen, singing and talking together.

Earlier, "My Sister Eileen" — a situation comedy series in this incarnation — made its bow on CBS.

Herbert G. Klein, press secretary to Vice President Richard M. Nixon, said Wednesday that the Republican candidate is quite happy—contrary to report — with the present system of questioning used in the first face-to-face TV appearance of Nixon and John F. Kennedy. That consists of posing a question to one candidate, who answers, followed by the comment or rebuttal of his opponent.

Prof. Herrell DeGraff of Cornell says that on a worldwide basis the typical family puts forth about 60 per cent of its productive effort for securing food. In the United States, however, a typical family uses only 25 per cent of its disposable income for food.

Bright and brash Elaine Stritch makes an ideal co-heroine Ruth and pretty Shirley Bonne, a newcomer to show business, does nicely as sweet, innocent Eileen. If the writers don't stray too far from Ruth McKenny's original this ought to do very nicely.

Because of the conflict with "My Sister Eileen," I saw only the second half of the Perry Como Show. It seemed a little brighter and sharper than last year and even the presence of both Fabian and Frankie Avalon didn't do much damage. Ethel Merman, as usual, was great. Welcome back, Mr. C.

The World Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — This would be a dull world if look-alikes faced each other. They haven't for some time, at home or abroad.

Instead, it's a matter of opposites. Take President Eisenhower and Premier Khrushchev, for instance, or the presidential candidates: Vice President Richard M. Nixon and Sen. John F. Kennedy.

Tubby Khrushchev is an actor, a highly charged, outgoing experimenter, unpredictable, ready to pop off in an assembly hall, on a sidewalk or on a balcony.

And he's no respecter of rules, as he demonstrated at the United Nations.

Eisenhower can throw up his arms to greet a crowd like a Tammany politician, grin in public as easily as Bob Hope, and pump a hand as hard as Khrushchev.

But he never seems at ease in a mob. He makes speeches from prepared texts as if predictable as a clock, preserves his dignity, and follows the diplomatic rules.

And he's a conservative, not an experimenter: Witness his concern for balancing the budget.

Closer at home the presidential candidates are opposites, too. Here Nixon is the actor, Kennedy the reserved one.

Like Jack Benny, Nixon always has his ear cocked for a sound from the audience, and can acknowledge it with a smile just as fast. Trained in debating, he never forgets how he looks—and sounds—in public.

He wraps himself in the flag a lot (as does Kennedy) and once he finds something he thinks the crowd likes he plays it over and over.

For example: He hadn't been mentioning his running mate, Henry Cabot Lodge, then did, got a big audience response, and then repeated it every place he went, with trimmings.

Kennedy also knows some things which have crowd appeal—like repeatedly mentioning his war record. But he's no actor. He doesn't even know how to use his hands well.

For example: He gestures endlessly with his right hand, up and down, to emphasize a point like a man chopping meat.

His speaking voice, after one listens for a while when he's making a speech, gets irritating. Yet, although he was bent on the presidency a long time, he only recently began to take advice on using his voice.

He's not only not a baby-kisser, he's not a very willing lady-kisser, as a recent photo showed when a woman admirer burst through a crowd to embrace him and he jerked back like a man about to be stabbed.

There always seem to be opposites. Just go back a bit—to President Truman when he ran against Thomas E. Dewey.

The over-egged Truman, quick with a crack, was full of fire and damnation for Republicans. Dewey, stiff as a starched shirt, never learned to unbend, even when playing to a crowd.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

BOBBY COHN, of Columbia Pictures, tells about a cloak-and-suit named Rappaport who suffered a nervous breakdown because of business reverses, and was advised by his doctor to try skin diving. Dubious but game, Rappaport donned a diving helmet, fins and an oxygen tank, and lowered himself into Lake Michigan.

Down, down, he went —100 feet, 200 feet, 300 feet. Strange fishes entranced Rappaport. Suddenly, however, who should come floundering into view but his partner Schmul, attired only in a pair of bathing trunks.

"Schmul!" cried Rappaport, "what you doing diving 300 feet without your equipment?"

"Who's diving?" gasped Schmul. "I'm drowning."

Walter Carmody, of Red Bank, is engaged in a unique journalistic endeavor: an analysis of obituary notices! A special paragraph is reserved for the accounts describing the deceased as a "clubman, raconteur, sportsman and bon vivant." "Right there," says Carmody, "you can know there has passed away one more wastrel who never did an honest day's work in his life."

33 Accidents Investigated by City Police

The Circleville Police Department investigated 33 accidents during September.

A monthly report showed the accidents involved 10 injuries, none fatal.

Patrolman Richard Blaney said 25 of the accidents involved two or more cars. Three of the accidents resulted in vehicles striking pedestrians, four fixed objects and one a horse.

Blaney said a total of 62 cars were connected with the 33 accidents. He said 48 of the cars were driven by males and 14 by females.

In other departments, officers investigated two burglaries, three petit larcenies, one aggravated assault and many complaints during the month.

150 Catholic Laymen Declare For Principle of Separation

WASHINGTON (AP) — More than 150 Roman Catholic laymen joined today in a statement of their belief in the separation of church and state.

"Efforts which tend to undermine the principle of separation, whether they come from Catholics, Protestants or Jews, believers or unbelievers, should be resisted no matter how well-intentioned such efforts might be," the statement said.

Sponsors said the statement was nonpartisan and was signed by a representative sampling of Catholic leaders from the fields of education, business, science, politics, labor and the arts.

It made no direct mention of the Roman Catholic religion of Sen. John F. Kennedy, the Democratic presidential nominee, but it referred to that in saying: "The present controversy about the Catholic Church and the presidency proves once again that large numbers of our fellow citizens seriously doubt the commitment of Catholics to the principles of a free society."

"This fact creates problems which extend far beyond this year's elections and threaten to make permanent bitter divisions in our national life."

Listed as primemovers in obtaining the signatures were Heinrich A. Rommen, professor of government at Georgetown University; Joseph O'Meara, dean of the University of Notre Dame's School of Law; Jerome G. Kerwin, professor of political science at the University of Chicago; Francis G. Wilson, professor of political science at the University of Illinois; and George N. Shuster, former president of Hunter College, New York City.

Mrs. Alexander died Sept. 27 at the age of 75.

Army Engineers Announce Ohio Project Plans

CINCINNATI (AP) — The U. S. Corps of Engineers has plans for projects in Ohio, Kentucky and Indiana expected to cost $31 million in the next year.

Brig. Gen. W. W. Lapsley, chief of Ohio River division engineers, said Tuesday the projects include: Ohio $100,000 in improvements to Nike facilities at Felicity and Oxford.

$170,000 for an armory at Troy. $25,000 for a maintenance shop at Marietta.

A radar filler unit at Bainbridge. 300,000 for a radar tower at Bellefontaine.

10 million for part of a new dam, gates, piers and other facilities at Neville (Clermont County). $80,000 for railroad tracks and a heating facility at Dayton's Wright Patterson Air Force Base. $400,000 for a logistics and communications building at Gentile Air Force Base.

Goes Both Ways

FLAGSTAFF, Ariz. (AP) — Albert Bartrum of Flagstaff went into court as the complaining witness in a grand theft case — and left with a 10-day jail sentence.

Bartrum had signed a complaint accusing Burl Stuffer, also of Flagstaff, of stealing a hunting dog. Justice of the Peace Jim Brierly dismissed the case.

When the decision was announced, Bartrum dashed across the court and slugged Stuffer. Judge Brierly ordered Bartrum to serve 10 days in jail for contempt of court.

Phone Hearings End

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Utilities Commission has given representatives of the Ohio Bell and General Telephone Co. of Ohio 60 days to file briefs summarizing their positions on a squabble over dividing money received for long distance calls handled by both utilities. Hearings in the battle ended Wednesday.

Far Too Much of a Good Thing

DEAR ABBY: We were invited to a wedding. The bride's parents wanted to put on a big show without spending anything. They sent over 300 invitations for a wedding in a church that could seat only 100. More than half the people had to stand outside until they were exhausted. The reception was held in the church basement. There was a mob pushing and shoving so you couldn't even get near the refreshment table. Isn't that like inviting guest to your home and not having room for them at the table? We'd like your opinion.

DEAR ABBY: What can I do to keep a 21-year-old girl from ruining her reputation by hanging around a gasoline station? There are nothing but married men there and people are talking. She says she goes there often to keep her car in good condition, but she stays for hours. How can I put a stop to it?

HER MOTHER
DEAR MOTHER: Let her know that while her automobile is in good condition, her reputation is falling apart.

DEAR ABBY: We married young and don't have many material things although we both come from nice families and are used to much more. We have three children, 6, 5 and 3. I have no help and do the best I can. Lately my husband has become very fussy about things I consider trivial and unimportant. Example: Last night I set the table without a table cloth or place mats. He likes green onions and since he was the only one eating them, I washed a few and placed them beside his plate. He said the least I could do was to put them on a

Economic Effect of Bypasses Studied by Highway Officials

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio Highway Department expects to have some answers by spring about the economic effect of highway bypasses on communities of various sizes.

Field studies have been completed at Circleville in Pickaway County, which has about 11,000 people and is bypassed by U.S. 23, and St. Clairsville in Belmont County, with about 3,000 people and has the U.S. 40 bypass. Studies at Piqua in Miami County, with about 17,500 and bypassed by U.S. 25, should be complete in about two weeks.

It's a "before and after" survey. Frank J. Murray, chief engineer for the departments planning and survey section, said that it includes surveys of certain sales tax receipts, property values, parking and trips out and through town.

Murray said the department wants to learn, among other things, what types of businesses are affected, and in what way. It has been necessary to study each area for two years after completion of the highway bypass while a pattern was established, he said. The study began in 1956 and 1957.

In a related study, Murray said, the department is seeking to learn the effects of a superhighway on the corridor it passes through. A four-mile wide strip along Ohio 1 (Cincinnati to Conneaut Freeway) is under study in Richland and Ashland Counties.

Department officials plus housewives hired part-time as interviewers have been making the studies, the first of this type in Ohio.

Terhune Studies Winter Shows At Fairgrounds

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio's Department of Agriculture is seeking the opinion of farm groups, trade and professional associations, and commercial organizations about holding a winter exposition at the state fairgrounds here.

Agriculture Director Robert H. Terhune said the tentative date for the show is the first week in February. Letters being sent out by the department this week urge interested groups to send representatives to an Oct. 19 conference at the fairgrounds.

Terhune said such an exposition would not be set up exactly like a fair, with prizes and the like, but would feature agricultural displays, machinery demonstrations, livestock sales and annual meetings of agricultural groups.

The idea of a winter show—putting the fairgrounds to off-season use—was discussed during the Republican administration of former Gov. C. William O'Neill.

Though basically a language of Africa, Swahili is sprinkled with words from Arabic, Persian, Portuguese, German, English and the tongues of India.

Johnson Seeks Votes in East, Lodge in West

NEW YORK (AP)—Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson confers today with leaders of the Independent Citizens for Kennedy and Johnson before ending his current campaign tour here on behalf of the Democratic ticket.

Sometime after noon, he will fly to Richmond, Va.

The Democratic vice-presidential candidate went barnstorming in Brooklyn Wednesday, returned to Manhattan to address 400 members of New York's Liberal party then boarded a New Haven Railroad commuter train and conducted a hand-shaking session during the 40-minute run to Greenwich, Conn.

He was cheered by Liberal party leaders and workers after he addressed them at the Hotel Astor.

CORVALLIS, Ore. (AP)—Henry Cabot Lodge. After a swing through California, brought the Republican campaign to this college town in western Oregon today.

The GOP vice presidential candidate was met by an enthusiastic crowd of 400, mostly students from Oregon State College, when his plane landed late Wednesday night.

He was scheduled for a mid-day speech at the college today, then was to go on to Portland for a nighttime rally.

PTA Approves Buying Land For Offices

CLEVELAND (AP) — Delegates to the 55th annual convention of the Ohio Congress of Parents and Teachers have authorized purchase of land in Columbus for a headquarters building.

PTA officials said however, it may be two years before land for a building site is acquired. Approval of the plan to buy land was voted by delegates Wednesday.

Mrs. Wilson C. Storey of Cincinnati, addressing a group of unit legislation chairmen, urged them to work in support of the legislative program adopted by the convention Tuesday.

That program calls for more equitable distribution of state funds for education.

Mrs. Storey, a former president of the state organization and currently legislation chairman, said PTA members must study the financial needs of their own school districts as well as those of the state as a whole. The PTA members should seek solutions through the Ohio General Assembly, if necessary, she said.

"Find out if your community is getting enough," Mrs. Storey suggested. "If it isn't, do something about distribution procedures."

The convention closed with a banquet Wednesday night.

The state board of managers was to meet in a post-convention session today.

Khrush Sticks Plump Finger Into Series

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The Soviet Union's Premier, Khrushchev is not content with busting up summit conferences — now he's sticking his plump finger in our World Series.

Indirectly, at least.

President Eisenhower, a keen baseball fan, had fully intended taking in at least a couple of World Series games—one here and one in New York—but had to cancel because of Khrushchev's pyrotechnics in the United Nations.

"The President was all ready to come but decided the situation in the U.N. was so tender he couldn't take the time off," said Commissioner Ford Frick today.

The commissioner said he had received no requests from the barnstorming presidential candidates—Vice President Richard M. Nixon and Sen. John F. Kennedy—for Series seats.

"I know the vice president is an avid fan and Jack Kennedy may be one also," Frick said, "but both probably are staying away for fear of being accused of using the Series as a publicity prop."

"I'm just a shabby about it. I don't like to see baseball get entangled with politics of any kind."

Massed Pickets Block Gates at GE Plant in Schenectady

SCHENECTADY, N. Y. (AP)—The five-day-old nationwide strike against the General Electric Co. engulfed GE's home plant today.

Local 301, largest unit of the striking International Union of Electrical Workers within GE, gathered 4,500 pickets to block the gates of GE's sprawling main plant.

A company spokesman said, however, that the Schenectady works would remain open.

Meanwhile, weary federal mediators try again today in New York City to end the walkout. They failed twice Wednesday.

The Schenectady local had voted against a strike in the IUE's nationwide referendum. A majority of the IUE locals at GE's 166 plants favored the walkout.

Local 301 remained at work during the first four days of the strike while it took another vote. The union said 95 per cent of its 8,700 members favored the strike in a poll Tuesday. A group of dissidents Wednesday challenged the vote as phony.

A. C. Stevens, manager of GE employee and community relations, said "we expect people to come to work. We don't want battles on the picket lines, nor do we want anyone to try to force his car through."

The sporadic picket line violence subsided somewhat Wednesday. Sheriff's deputies resorted to fire hoses to open a path for non-strikers at the Syracuse plant.

Seven pickets were arrested. GE officials at Syracuse began injunction proceedings to curb what the company termed mobs of pickets blocking plant gates.

At Anniston, Ala., eggs and rocks flew at cars entering a plant. Six people were arrested in a disturbance at the Bucyrus, Ohio, plant when workers attempted to drive through a picket line. Four were pickets.

The others arrested, a couple, were charged by a picket of brandishing a pistol and hitting him as they attempted to move through the line.

H. L. Weiss, general manager of the GE lamp division in Cleveland, in a telegram to David J. Fitzmaurice, president of IUE district 7, charged that "vicious violence and vandalism" was being inflicted at Bucyrus by pickets imported "from Westinghouse plants in Mansfield, Warren and Columbus (Ohio)."

At Salem, Va., strikers complained to Mayor James I. Moyer about alleged mistreatment by Salem police. The union charged that police have pushed and shoved the strikers. Picketing was quiet Wednesday.

After mediation sessions in New York City Wednesday, the company accused the union of offering new contract proposals that actually would block an agreement. The IUE declined comment.

The union, which represents 70,000 of GE's 240,000 workers, is

TOMORROW THE GREATEST SIXTY-ONEDERFUL CHEVROLET

Here's the car that reads you loud and clear—the new-size, you-size '61 Chevrolet. We started out by trimming the outside size a bit (to give you extra inches of clearance for parking and maneuvering) but inside we left you a full measure of Chevy comfort. Door openings are as much as 6 inches wider to give feet, knees, and elbows the undisputed right of way. And the new easy-chair seats are as much as 14% higher—just right for seeing, just right for sitting.

Once you've settled inside you'll have high and wide praises for Chevrolet's spacious new dimensions (in the Sport Coupes, for example, head room has been upped as much as 2 inches, and there's more leg room, too—front and rear). Chevy's new trunk is something else that will please you hugely—what with its deep-well shape and bumper-level loading it holds things you've never been able to get in a trunk before.

Yet, generously endowed as this car is with spaciousness and clean-etched elegance, it holds steadfastly to all the thrifty, dependable virtues Chevrolet buyers have come to take for granted. Your dealer's the man to see for all the details.

There's never been a trunk like it before! The floor's recessed more than half a foot and the loading height is as much as 10½ inches lower.

Spend More Time as Family, Students Tell PTA Delegates

CLEVELAND (AP)—A Panel of three high school students gave parents attending the Ohio PTA convention here this week an idea of how they look to some teenagers.

Parents don't measure up too well, the Cleveland school students agreed in their discussion of "the challenge of a new decade."

"There should be more family life," said Terry Bettner of West Technical High School. "Families should attend shows together and eat their meals together. There are too many split-shift meals."

"There's not enough home life," echoed Bill Schlatterbeck of Lincoln High. "Parents go one place; teenagers go another."

Audrey Pericha of John Adams noted that many children "will confide in a friend before they will a parent. There is just no family confidence any more."

Parents attending the 55th annual convention of the Ohio Congress of Parents and Teachers heard more critical words from Dr. Novice G. Fawcett, president of Ohio State University.

Citing results of a recent Ford Foundation survey, Fawcett said in a speech that parents are failing to make adequate provision for higher education for their children — "one of the most urgent and important responsibilities which they face today."

Parents should "put first things first" and make sacrifices to see that funds for educating their children are available, the University president declared. He urged parents also to "put forth images of scholarship and intellectualism in the home."

He said the Ford Foundation survey showed that 60 per cent of parents interviewed had no savings plan to provide college educations for their children. The 40 per cent which had such plans put aside only an average of $150 for this purpose last year.

Embezzling—Red Style

VIENNA (AP)—A district court in the Bulgarian town of Trnovo has condemned two men to death for embezzling 160,000 leva or $23,520 at the official rate, the Bulgarian Communist party paper Borba reported. Two Bulgarians were sentenced last week to die before a firing squad for embezzling 295,800 leva—$43,482—and 56 persons are on trial in Varna, charged with embezzling 2,160,000 leva—$317,520.

Reds Threaten Walkout after Ohioan's Blast

TOKYO (AP)—Soviet delegates have threatened to walk out of the Inter-Parliamentary Union conference after an American Congressman charged Communist parliaments are only rubber-stamp bodies.

"We will leave the conference hall if such expressions are ever used again," Chief Soviet Delegate J. I. Paletskis declared, protesting a statement to the meeting of lawmakers from 49 nations by Rep. Michael A. Feighan, D-Ohio.

Feighan during a debate on parliaments are "nothing more than rubber stamps" for totalitarian government.

Communism, he said, "rejects all the substantive requirements of both parliament and democracy."

Paletskis protested that "all parliaments are representative of the people."

"I have no objection if they walk out," Feighan told newsmen later. "In my opinion communist countries do not qualify as parliamentary democracies. . . I wonder why they are permitted to be members of IPU."

Alcatraz Island, site of the federal prison in San Francisco Bay, derives its name from a species of pelican which roosted there when California was a Spanish colony.

How Do We, Reds Fare in Space Age?

By ALTON BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Science Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Dawn of Year 4 of the space age finds: The United States leading in bread-and-butter space science. The Soviet Union ahead in spectacular ventures.

U.S. satellites have pioneered the way to use space for better weather forecasts, global communications, precise ship navigation.

They have gleaned vast basic knowledge—more than the Soviets have disclosed from their problems at least—about radiations, meteoritic space dust, and other conditions in space.

The Soviet Union has hit the moon, photographed the back side of the moon, and bids to be first with a man into space.

The U.S.S.R. stunned the world three years ago Tuesday with Sputnik I. Her earlier development of powerful rockets gave her and still gives her, the means of proud achievements.

A month later came Sputnik II, carrying the dog Laika, the first real public notice of serious and painstaking Soviet desire to send man beyond the shackles of gravity into space, to the moon or planets.

To date, the Soviet Union has put six satellites orbiting around the earth, one into the moon, another into orbit around the sun. She has recovered one satellite with a menagerie of animals to test safe human travel.

But 25 U.S. satellites have gone swinging around the earth—counting the new Courier 1B—and two others have become tiny planets of the sun. Two capsules have been recovered from space.

Speculations are that the Soviet Union is just around the corner from sending the first man into space. The United States still appears a year or more from this goal.

New Satellite A 'Chatterbox' High in Sky

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—America's newest satellite — a veritable chatterbox in the sky — whirled around the world today, paving the way for a space-age communications system for U.S. military forces.

The 500-pound Courier 1B shot skyward Tuesday atop a Thor-Able Star rocket. It is circling the earth every 115 minutes in an orbit ranging from 575 to 750-miles above the surface.

As dramatic evidence of its success, the new space messenger was used within hours after launch to relay a teletype message of peace and good will from President Eisenhower to the United Nations.

The message was sent from Washington to Ft. Monmouth, N.J., where it was beamed to Courier 1B. The note then was transmitted to another ground station which relayed it by high-speed radio to New York. The President's message welcomed 16 new nations to the U.N. and expressed hope they would continue to witness such scientific advances as this new satellite.

Kennedy Studies 'Peace Corps' Idea

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. John F. Kennedy said here that if he is elected president, he will examine the possibility of forming a Youth Peace Corps of trained young Americans to help new nations.

"Such service would be considered service in the national interest," Kennedy said. "Might it not make the normal military obligation unnecessary?"

Kennedy raised the possibility of the peace corps in a long statement issued here urging young people who have become of voting age to register and vote in next month's elections.

Youngstown Man Held For Attempted Bribe

WARREN, Ohio (AP) — Held under $11,000 bond in city jail is Robert Fleming, 21, of Youngstown, who pleaded innocent to a charge he offered a Warren policeman $1,000 to "case" downtown stores for burglaries. Cadet Patronman Frank Sedall identified Fleming as the man who on Sept. 21 put a $121 wrist watch in his uniform pocket as a "down payment" while Sedall was making a closing time check at a tavern.

NEW '61 CHEVY CORVAIR

More space . . . more spunk and wagons, too!

The newest car in America: the CORVAIR 700 LAKE WOOD 4-DOOR STATION WAGON.

CORVAIR 700 CLUB COUPE. Like all coupes and sedans, it has a longer range fuel tank.

CORVAIR 700 4-DOOR SEDAN. Provisions for heating ducts are built right into its Body by Fisher.

Here's the new Chevy Corvair for '61 with a complete line of complete thrift cars.

To start with, every Corvair has a budget-pleasing price tag. And Corvair goes on from there to save you even more. With extra miles per gallon . . . quicker-than-ever cold-start warmup so you start saving sooner . . . a new extra-cost optional heater that warms everyone evenly. Riding along with this extra economy: more room inside for you, more room up front for your luggage (sedans and coupes have almost 12% more usable trunk space).

And our new wagons? You'll love them—think they're the greatest thing for families since houses. The Lakewood Station Wagon does a man-sized job with cargo, up to 68 cubic feet of it. The Greenbrier Sports Wagon you're going to have to see—it gives you up to 175.5 cubic feet of space for you and your things.

Corvair's whole thrifty lineup gets its pop from a spunkier 145-cu.-in. air-cooled rear engine. Same rear-engine traction, same smooth 4-wheel independent-suspension ride. See the polished and refined 1961 Corvair first chance you get at your Chevrolet dealer's.

Spare tire is in the rear in coupes and sedans—leaving more luggage space up front.

Even middle-seat passengers sit pretty, thanks to Corvair's practically flat floor.

Now in production—the GREENBRIER SPORTS WAGON with up to twice as much room as ordinary wagons (third seat optional at extra cost).

Administration Still Confident About Business

Though Views Shaken
They Are Stronger
Than Many Experts

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP)—The administration's confidence in the business outlook is shaken but unbowed. It is notably stronger than that expressed by many business and banking economists and by the faint-hearted traders in the stock market.

The fiscal authorities spell out in dollars and cents their expectations of a business pickup in the making.

This is the positive side of this week's revision in U. S. budget prospects. The negative side is the acceptance of the fact that business profits have declined and thus undercut January's high hopes for much bigger treasury collections this year.

But to arrive at their new view, the fiscal experts start with the assumption that the bottom has been reached in the profit decline of the last six months. Earnings will have to increase rather than go on declining the rest of this year and the first part of 1961 if the Treasury is to collect in income taxes on corporate profits the total in the revised federal budget.

Budget Director Maurice H. Stans is betting the Treasury will. He looks for a fall business pickup perhaps better than usual and also views the first half of 1961 without alarm.

This view calls for an increase in the gross national product, the total dollar volume of goods and services produced. This was running at a rate of $505 billion or less this summer. But Stans thinks it will go to $510 billion or more by the end of the year.

In January the budget experts expected corporate taxes to reach $23.5 billion this year. Now they look for $2 billion less than that. But many corporate economists, noting the sharp drop in profits from the first to second quarters this year, with only a holding action shown in the third quarter, say profits in the final three months will have to pick up better than now seems certain if the Treasury is to collect $21.5 billion this year.

Most of the drop in profits has been blamed on rising costs when competition kept prices down. A turning point is as yet unsighted.

Missourian To Speak

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Missouri Republican Rep. Richard Bolling will speak at a meeting of the Tri-State Farmers for Kennedy-Johnson Committee at Bowling Green State University Oct. 8. The group has announced. The tri-state area meeting includes Ohio, Michigan and Indiana.

Charleston, S. C., was first named Albemarle Point in 1670. A year later it was named Charles Town in honor of Charles II of England. It finally became Charleston on Aug. 13, 1782.

Weekly Food Review

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Look for roast beef on your dinner table this weekend if the food shopper at your house is looking for bargains.

A wide variety of beef cuts hit the headlines in supermarket advertising over a wide area this week. Seven and 10 inch rib roasts are featured in New England, the middle Atlantic states, Midwest and Far West at prices 4 to 10 cents a pound below last week.

Round steak also is pushed in the Midwest while specials in ground beef are advertised in the middle Atlantic and Far West states.

There's more to the emphasis on beef than the usual idea of offering good red meat. The latest Agriculture Department slaughter report showed that beef production so far this year was up 9 per cent over the year ago.

Leg of lamb is featured in some areas while fryers down 2 to 7 cents a pound, are specials in other places.

Eggs still are climbing with prices at one chain's New York metropolitan area stores ranging from 47 to 77 cents a dozen for whites, 14 to 20 cents a dozen more than a year ago.

Potatoes head the best buy list. The fall crop is expected to run 6 per cent larger than last year and 12 per cent above the recent year's average.

Other outstanding vegetable buys include cabbage, cauliflower, celery, eggplant, endive, escarole, lettuce, yellow onions, nearby peppers, parsnips, watercress, cranberries and sweet potatoes.

You can get good buys too, from brussels sprouts, beans, broccoli, carrots, corn, cucumbers, radishes, spinach and squash.

Fairly expensive tags are put on artichokes, green peas, okra and California peppers.

Best be among fruits are McIntosh apples, grapes (especially the tokay variety), pears and small California oranges. Honeydew melons, fresh prunes, lemons and limes are rated good buys while the good quality Delicious apples are on the high side.

School Is Evacuated After Bomb Threat

ELYRIA, Ohio (AP)—A telephoned bomb warning resulted in evacuation of some 1,800 pupils from Clearview High School and Durling and Vincent Elementary Schools in Lorain County Wednesday.

The anonymous telephone call was received Tuesday by Mrs. Kathy Restivo secretary to the principal of Clearview High. The caller failed to specify which of the three schools in the Clearview district was referred to. A thorough search turned up no evidence of a bomb.

Dick To Switch Makeup for TV Debate Friday

WASHINGTON (AP)—Vice President Richard M. Nixon will not use the same makeup and lighting arrangements in his second television appearance with Sen. John F. Kennedy Friday night.

He won't use the makeup man who prepared him for the first TV encounter with Kennedy in Chicago last week, either.

A Republican National Committee spokesman said Nixon's makeup and lighting arrangements for this Friday's confrontation "will be different from last time, but I don't know exactly how."

He said a Nixon aide who applied the makeup for the Chicago program and also for TV at the Republican National Convention is not expected to be employed this time.

"That's no reflection of him, however, he'll continue to work for us and advise us," the spokesman said. "I also understand he's sick now."

It appeared to many observers that the most common reaction to the first joint appearance of the two men in Chicago was that Nixon looked haggard and tired in comparison to Kennedy.

The Republican spokesman also said he understood that Kennedy had been made up by an expert before the Chicago show, despite claims by the Kennedy camp that he used no makeup at all.

A Democratic National Committee spokesman said this statement was "absolutely false."

3,450 Off Campus

OXFORD, Ohio (AP)—Miami University's off-campus classes have 3,450 enrolled, while its enrollment on the campus is 6,937. The school reported off-campus figures with this count for each center: Dayton 1,635, Middletown 460, Hamilton 332, Norwood 510 and Piqua 341.

Police Bring News In Time for Rescue

WARREN, Ohio (AP)—Police who went to tell August Mason of Niles of the death of his son and grandson arrived in time to rescue the 72-year-old man from a fire. Two patrolmen found Mason's room filled with smoke and his bed on fire Wednesday. After carrying him out and reviving him, the police told Mason his son, August, 38, of Charleston, Pa. and his grandson, August Mark, 11, were killed in a traffic accident in New York. Mason apparently had fallen asleep while smoking Niles police said.

ZANESVILLE, Ohio (AP)—An emergency vehicle, speeding to a hospital with a sick child, and an auto collided in downtown Zanesville Wednesday killing one man and seriously injuring three others.

The 10-month-old baby, suffering from a heart ailment, was taken from the crash scene by an unidentified motorist and is reported recovering in an oxygen tent in a hospital.

BUCS ARE OFF AND RUNNING — The Pirates' Bill Virdon legs it for third as a wild throw from Yankee catcher Yogi Berra goes between shortstop Tony Kubek and Bobby Richardson, second baseman, in the first inning of the opening game of the 1960 World Series at Forbes Field.

Pirates Find Yanks Are Not Supermen

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates, confident but not cocky after winning the opening game of the World Series, found out a couple of things about the New York Yankees that they suspected all along.

"They're like any other club," said Elroy Face. "They can be pitched to."

"And they can scare you," said Dick Groat.

It was Face, the scrawny relief pitcher who helped the Bucs get fat after 33 years between pennants, who saved the victory for starting pitcher Vernon Law. The little right-hander got rid of Yankee power with two on and none out in the eighth inning by striking out Mickey Mantle, retiring Yogi Berra on a fly, and fanning Bill Skowron.

In the ninth, pinch-hitter Elston Howard tagged him for a two-run homer, but Face then ended it by getting Hector Lopez to hit into a doubleplay.

"We knew they had power," said Groat, pivot man at short on the wrapup doubleplay, "but they strike so fast."

"You go into the ninth inning and you figure you've got it made. And then bing, bing, bing you're in trouble."

The Pirates also were in trouble in the fourth inning, when Bill Virdon's running catch of Berra's long drive to right center saved a 3-1 lead. That catch, with Virdon reaching over Roberto Clemente as they bumped slightly, was the turning point.

Hardly any of the Yankees saw Virdon in the first inning, when he pulled a delayed steal of second that caught Yankee shortstop Tony Kubek napping. Kubek drew the error—after convincing the scorer that the responsibility was his, not Berra's—when no one was at second to take the throw by the Yankee catcher.

Pitching was the Yankees' problem. "It was the type of game, I figure, where if we get any kind of pitching we win it because we got four runs," said Manager Casey Stengel.

"I pinch hit for (Clete) Boyer in the second inning because I'm trying to get even. How the hell do you know in the eighth or ninth inning you're going to get a man on base?"

"The best thing that club did was get my left fielder (Lopez) out and you know he's the best to hit to right field. But they get him out."

Huffers' 201 High In Independent

Benny Huffer's 201 single game was high score in Wednesday Night Independent League bowling at Prairie Lanes.

Top three - game set honors were taken by Phil Gordon, Leonard Buskirk and Raymond Reichelderfer, each with a 556. Gordon rolls for Blue Ribbon Dairy, Buskirk for the Eagles and Reichelderfer for Reid's Insurance. Huffer is a member of the Goodmore Farms team.

The Eagles team cracked the pins for high team single game with a 974 and also was high series team with 2,794 pins.

Mrs. Moorehead Leads Matinee

Biddy Moorehead's 212 single game and 552 series led all bowlers in the Wednesday Matinee League at Circle "D" Recreation.

High team game laurels were shared by Rexall Drugs and Barnhill's Dry cleaning, each team posting a 686 series. Team series honors went to Rexall Drugs with 1,969 pins.

Complete Bowling Data Is Needed

Local bowling league secretaries are reminded to bring results to The Herald as soon as possible following weekly competition.

Essential information includes first and last names of individual high bowlers, their scores and the team with which they bowl. Also needed is the data on high team scores, the name of the league, the date, team standings and the name of the bowling establishment.

It is not necessary to submit league standings each week for publication. League secretaries may determine when standings should be printed.

In order to give a better description of bowling action, it is necessary that first names of high bowlers be listed.

Bobby Corle, a former Bedford, Pa., High School wrestling champion at 95 pounds, led Pimlico's jockeys last spring with 13 winners in 12 days.

Pirates Prove They Know How To Hit, Run

Cynics Now Believe After Series Opener Victory over Yanks

PITTSBURGH (AP)—It must be true what rival National League managers have been saying about Pittsburgh.

"They drive you crazy with their constant hitting and running, said Solly Hemus of the St. Louis Cardinals.

"They play smart, heads-up baseball," said Fred Hutchinson of Cincinnati. "They know what they're doing all the time. As a team, it's a manager's delight."

"They take advantage of every break," said Chuck Dressen of Milwaukee. "And they make very few mistakes themselves."

The Pirates made prophets out of their fellow National Leaguers and believers out of the cynics Wednesday beating New York with more ease than the 6-4 score might indicate. Whether they can do it again in game No. 2 today remained to be seen. In any event, the Pirates demonstrated before 36,676 cash customers at Forbes Field that they were no fluke champions, making the odds-makers wonder whether they hadn't underrated them after all.

A 13 to 10 underdog before Wednesday's game, the Pirates have become an 11 to 10 favorite to win the Series. Today's battle before another sellout crowd, featuring another right-handed duel, between Bob Friend (18-12) of the Pirates and Bob Turley (9-3) of the Yankees, is rated even money.

Except for the pitchers, neither manager planned any lineup or batting order changes. The weatherman predicted another perfect playing day, with sunny skies and temperature in the 60's. Game time is 1 p.m., Eastern Daylight Time.

It was all Pittsburgh Wednesday. The Pirates outplayed, outfielded, outran, out-maneuvered and outsmarted the Yankees. They were outbut but not outslugged even though the American League champions outthomered them two to one.

Pittsburgh walloped three extra base hits to New York's two. The Pirates stole two bases to none for the Yankees. They were guilty of no errors to two for their rivals. And Pittsburgh Manager Danny Murtaugh even borrowed a page from Casey Stengel's book by going to his bench in the late innings for defensive purposes and to the mound in tense moments for counsel to his pitchers.

In the first inning, Roger Maris walloped a home run off 20-game winning right-hander Vern Law to give the Yankees a 1-0 lead. But the Pirates went right to work on starter Art Ditmar, driving him from the mound before he could get the second out.

Wave of 'Colds' Hits Series City

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A wave of "colds" hit Pittsburgh school children Wednesday for the opening of the World Series.

One school in the city had 363 students absent, another had 172 and a third had 126.

Tigers Eye Hurricane Visit Friday

Circleville High School's main ambition Friday night will be to get on the win side of the SCO ledger at the expense of the Wilmington Hurricane.

The Tigers dropped their league opener to Washington Friday, but will start with a clean bill when action opens here tomorrow at 8 p.m.

Wilmington on the other hand fashioned a win in its opening league test by handing Pleasant View, a 16-0 lacing Friday. It marked the third win against one loss for the Hurricane.

Circleville currently holds victories over Paint Valley and Columbus Rosary and losses to Athens and WCHL.

With one more day of light practice on the schedule this week, the Tigers appear to be in good physical condition.

Wilmington, with Fullback Rick Mustard back in action again, also probably will be at full strength.

County Teams Ready for Tilts

Ashville, Logan Elm and Scioto Twp. are scheduled for football games this week.

Ashville, seeking its third win in the Darby Valley League, entertains strong Madison South Friday at the Pickaway County Fairgrounds gridiron. The kickoff is 8 p.m.

The Braves of Logan Elm travel to Laurelville for a game slated to start 4 p.m. tomorrow. The Braves will be after their fifth win in a row.

Scioto goes against Bishop Hartley Saturday night in Columbus. The Buffaloes will go for their first, victory in three starts.

Circleville Horse Wins

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Jerry H., owned by Clarence Helvering of Circleville, won the featured class B pace Wednesday night at Scioto Downs in 2:09 2-5.

The winner, driven by Jim Mace won in the stretch over Guyetta Direct. Jerry H. paid $6.80.

A 45-acre lake is located on the infield of Dayton International speedway at Daytona, Fla.

Foreign Vessels Making Inroads

CLEVELAND (AP)—An official of the Lake Carriers' Association says Great Lakes shippers feel their longtime misgivings over the St. Lawrence Seaway are being borne out.

Oliver T. Burnham vice president of the Association, told the Cleveland Engineering Society Tuesday of inroads made by foreign shippers in competition with lake shippers.

Burnham said imports of foreign ore, in competition with lake shipping and domestic ore mines, hit a new peak of 35,645,649 gross tons last year—83 per cent of the amount carried in lake ships. The 1960 import to lake will equal or exceed last year's total, he said.

Foreign carriers also made inroads in grain shipping. Whoming is an Algonquin Indian word meaning "upon the great plain."

Ohio GOP To Hear Senator from Hawaii

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Hiram Fong, R-Hawaii, will visit Ohio on a seven-state tour to launch a program aimed at getting people to campaign for Republican presidential candidate Richard M. Nixon. The Republican National Committee said Fong's program, which he used in winning election as a senator from Hawaii, tries to get people to campaign for Nixon among friends and acquaintances in the same occupation.

State's Jobless Total Declines

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The number of Ohioans collecting unemployment benefits dipped by 1,317 last week. The number of Ohioans who exhausted their benefits — 1,380 — more than accounts for the entire drop.

As of last Saturday, the Bureau of Unemployment Compensation reports, 105,091 Ohioans were collecting benefits. The total the previous week was 106,408.

New claims for benefits filed last week totaled 16,197, approximately the same number as the previous week.

The number of jobless on the benefit rolls Oct. 1 was almost exactly double the average number receiving benefits in October 1959.
